Dear Mr. and Mrs. Chapman,

I am excited! I'm going to be an intern with Reformed University Ministries at Colorado State University during the 2008-2009 school year.

As you may know, Reformed University Ministries is the college ministry of my denomination, the Presbyterian Church in America. RUM's mission is to reach students with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and equip them to serve Him, not just on campus, but in all of life.

I will serve under the leadership of Reverend Ryan Baker, the Reformed University Fellowship Campus Minister in Fort Collins, Colorado. (Did I mention I am excited?) I am looking forward to praying, singing, learning and fellowshiping weekly in a large group, as well as leading smaller Bible studies, discipling and meeting with students individually and assisting with conferences.

I need your prayers. Although most of my time will be spent with students, I also want to know and more deeply understand Scripture. The combination of intense personal study and a demanding schedule mean I need lots of energy and a hunger for the ministry.

As an intern, I have to raise my own support... $30,600 of my own support! Yikes! However, since it seems that God wants me in Colorado, I feel certain He will get me there. Perhaps He will use you? I am at a point in my life at which I have much freedom to serve, and I would be honored to be the hands and feet of your gift.

I will need 75% ($23,000) of this before I can move and begin working on campus. Please don't feel overwhelmed by my need; whatever you are able to give, small or large, will be helpful, whether monthly or a one-time gift. All contributions are tax deductible. In addition to checks in the enclosed envelope, you can also give online at www.ruf.org.

RUF at Mississippi State enabled me to grow personally with the Lord, and to be a part of an amazing community. Now I am blessed to assist in the ministry that so greatly served me! Thank you ahead of time for joining me in whatever way you are able. I look forward to your sharing in the ministry at Colorado State University.

Sincerely,

Christy Chapman

P.S. Receiving this letter is not contingent on your support of any kind. Being on my mailing list means you will know what I am up to, and how God is working in my life. If you do not wish to receive this letter, please let me know. Thank you.
